This innovation similar to the previous ones' has been accomplished thanks to the partnership with University Lab (INSA Toulouse) and the support of OSEO for the past 10 years. Focused on mechatronics, the R&D of COVAL explored the Micro & Nanotechnologies with the cooperation of MINALOGIC, the Technical Center of Microelectronic.

Innovation is the key factor to leadership in these emerging markets, not only in France but also in the export through its subsidiaries based in: Spain, Brazil, Germany, Italy and USA which represent 40% of COVAL's turnover in the overseas markets.

From the IRCAM to TGV

Michel Cecchin, CEO of COVAL, participated in the IRCAM the National ceremony of awards presentation in the presence of the Minister for the Productivity Improvement Mr. Arnaud MONTERBOURG and Ms. HAIGNERE Caludie president for the public establishment 'palais de la décourverte et de la Cité des sciences et de l'industrie' (EPPDCSI) and the president of OSEO Mr. François Drouin.

COVAL was awarded the prize for industrial innovation for the Rhone Alpes region on March 27th during a ceremony at the Train Industry and Innovation Expo in Lyon.

"This award is an encouragement for all the employees of COVAL. This also recognizes our customers in France and all over the world for their confidence in COVAL. This reinforces our determination to pursue a continuous strategic innovation with the support of our industrial economic partners, explains Mr. Michel CECCHIN"
